

Fraud & Forensics

hidden dangers

What you cannot see can hurt you. In addition to the obvious financial impact, fraud puts your business at risk for reputation damage, decreases the value of your business and can trigger deep emotional responses in you and your employees. We work with you to determine which areas, people or functions of the organization require attention.

solutions

Our unique methodologies go beyond the traditional fraud triangle and take into account human nature. We specialize in providing customized solutions in the areas of fraud investigations, forensic accounting, economic damages, litigation support including expert witness testimony, risk management, operational reviews, compliance and internal controls. Our advanced knowledge of typical fraud schemes and data analysis techniques enable us to perform investigations efficiently and strategically.

preventative
measures

Stop fraud before it happens. Fixing the problem is only one objective. We help you stay ahead of fraud by protecting and deterring future fraud within your organization. We can assist you to improve policies, strengthen your internal controls and can provide best practices for corporate governance to ensure trust and confidence in your organization.

team

We provide thought leadership with proven results. Our dedicated team is comprised of Certified Fraud Examiners (CFE) and Certified Public Accountants (CPA) who specialize in the fraud & forensics field including fraud prevention, detection, investigation, ethics and compliance. We are committed to providing responsive, flexible and professional solutions delivered in a supportive, personal manner.
